Admiral Jerauld Wright (USN Ret.) and Dr. R. Jack Smith of the Central Intelligence Agency, both of Washington, D.C., visited Malmstrom Air Force Base for a briefing on the Minuteman missile complex under construction in central Montana.

Admiral Wright was supreme Allied commander in the Atlantic for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) from 1954 to 1959.

Col. B. C. Andrus Jr., commander of the 341st Strategic Missile Wing, briefed the visitors on the role the Minuteman will play in bolstering the deterrent power of the Strategic Air Command.
